

Cookies Policy

Effective Date: 27/03/2024

This Cookies Policy explains how Guardian-XL uses cookies on guardian-xl.com

What are cookies?

Cookies are small pieces of data stored on a user's device (such as a computer or mobile device) that help improve the user's browsing experience. Cookies can be used for various purposes, including recognising users, remembering their preferences, and enabling certain features.

How we use cookies

We use cookies on our website primarily to keep users logged in. When you log in to our website, we may store a session cookie on your device to maintain your login status. This cookie allows you to access restricted areas of the website without having to log in repeatedly.

Your consent

By using our website, you consent to the use of cookies in accordance with this Cookies Policy. You can manage your cookie preferences through your web browser settings. Please note that blocking or disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality of the website.

Third-party cookies

We may also use third-party services on our website that may set cookies on your device. These third-party cookies are subject to the respective privacy policies of the third-party providers. We do not have control over these cookies.

Updates to this policy

We may update this Cookies Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons. We encourage you to review this policy periodically for any updates.

Contact us

If you have any questions about this Cookies Policy or our use of cookies, please contact us at support@guardian-xl.com
